Creating Opportunities in AeroSpace

About VASBA

The Virginia AeroSpace Business Association (VASBA) is the premier statewide nonprofit trade association representing all aspects of the aerospace community in the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Founding membership includes more than 25 companies, nonprofits, and individuals representing many facets of the aerospace industry with the intent to make VASBA an effective advocate for aerospace business before federal, state and local policy - makers. VASBA held events provide opportunities for participants to network with colleagues, industry leaders, and key policy makers. We invite aerospace companies, research labs, academic institutions, individuals and professional service firms to participate.
